One day, all the animals became worried after hearing the news, which said that there was going to be a war and all the healthy animals had to become soldiers.

The monkey did not want to become a soldier. He had an idea. He cut off part of his long tail and went to see a doctor. He showed it to the doctor and said, "Look, my tail gets hurt. I can't go to the war." The doctor agreed and let him go. The rabbit used the same way as the monkey. This time, he cut off part of his long ear. The doctor agreed that he could not become a soldier and let him go.

The bear became even more worried because he did not have a long tail or long ears. The monkey and the rabbit were his best friends. They thought that maybe he could pull out all his teeth. The bear did so. After seeing the doctor, he came back sadly and told his friends, "They think that I'm too heavy, so I don't have to join the war."
