第 43-45 為題組

When I was little, I often went to a beautiful beach with my classmates. We saw many people walking on the beach and swimming in the sea happily. We often caught little crabs (螃蟹) and shrimp (蝦子) luckily on the beach. We sometimes picked up a lot of beautiful shells (貝殼) from the beach. We had fun there.

Everything is not the same now. There is always much dirty trash on the beach and in the ocean. Plastic bottles, straws, and plastic cups are here and there. Stinky oil and wastewater are everywhere in the water. Many fish pass away day by day.

Now, we must face the terrible problem seriously and try to solve (解決) it right away. After all, we have only one earth. Let's do our best to protect (保護) it well.

43. What does it mean in the reading?
 (A) The ocean. (B) The Earth. (C) The problem. (D) The trash.
 44. What did we NOT see on the beach before?

45. What has changed about the beach and ocean according to the article?
 (A) Fish are thriving in the ocean.
 (B) There are more people swimming in the sea.
 (C) There are more beautiful shells on the beach.
 (D) There is a lot of dirty trash and stinky oil and wastewater.
