三、閱讀理解測驗 2% for each, 30%

Dear Diary,

I was brave today. On my way home from school, I heard a loud scream as I turned the corner into an alley. I looked around and saw a man kicking a black dog on the street. The dog looked very scared. I knew there was something I had to do. I walked up to the man even though he looked very mean. I told him to stop. He was very angry at me, telling me to walk away. I said, "No!" Finally, he left!

To be honest, I was scared then. Luckily, the man left at last. I called the police and someone from an animal rescue place came to take the dog away. I was happy I saved the puppy.

- What did the writer do to the black dog?
(A) He kicked the black dog. (B) He saved the black dog.
(C) He was brave and ran after the man. (D) He had a black dog at home.
- Where was the scream from?
(A) From the writer. (B) From the police.
(C) From the bad man. (D) From the dog.
- What does it mean when the writer writes, "To be honest..."?
(A) He or she is showing the real feelings.
(B) He or she doesn't like telling jokes.
(C) He or she doesn't want to walk in an alley.
(D) He or she wanted to fight with the man.
